

Julien Sagot

A perfectionist Graphic Designer

I was born on a cold day of April 1993, in a small village called "Coudekerque-Branche" in France.

In 2004, at the age of 11, my life changed. I discovered Adobe Photoshop and quickly started crafting icons, then user interfaces.

In 2009, I worked on Ecoute 1.4. I was in charge of the user interface and application icon.

In 2010, I worked on Ecoute 2. I was in charge of the user interface, application icon and website.

In 2011, I obtained my Baccalauréat (French high school diploma) with honors.

In 2011, I worked on Ecoute 3. I was in charge of the user interface, application icon and website.

In 2012, I worked on Ecoute for iOS. I was in charge of the user interface, application icon and website.

In 2013, I received my BTS Informatique (2 years technical degree in computer science) with honors.

In 2013, I worked on Ecoute 2 for iOS. I was in charge of the user interface, application icon and website.

In 2014, I worked on FinalCAD. I was in charge of the user interface.
